BINDING AND BROKERAGE... WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE... AND WHY?

At Arlington/Roe we segment our commercial expertise between commercial binding and commercial brokerage. By having two commercial focuses we can provide you with exactly the right fit for your client.

COMMERCIAL BINDING

In commercial binding we have underwriting authority. We hold the pen and we have the ability to respond quickly.

COMMERCIAL BROKERAGE

In commercial brokerage, while we don’t hold the pen, we have the ability to give you solutions to complex or unique opportunities.
